

Environmental Public Health Tracking: A Community Perspective

Jane Laping, Executive Director
Mothers for Clean Air

www.mothersforcleanair.org

Importance to Community and MfCA

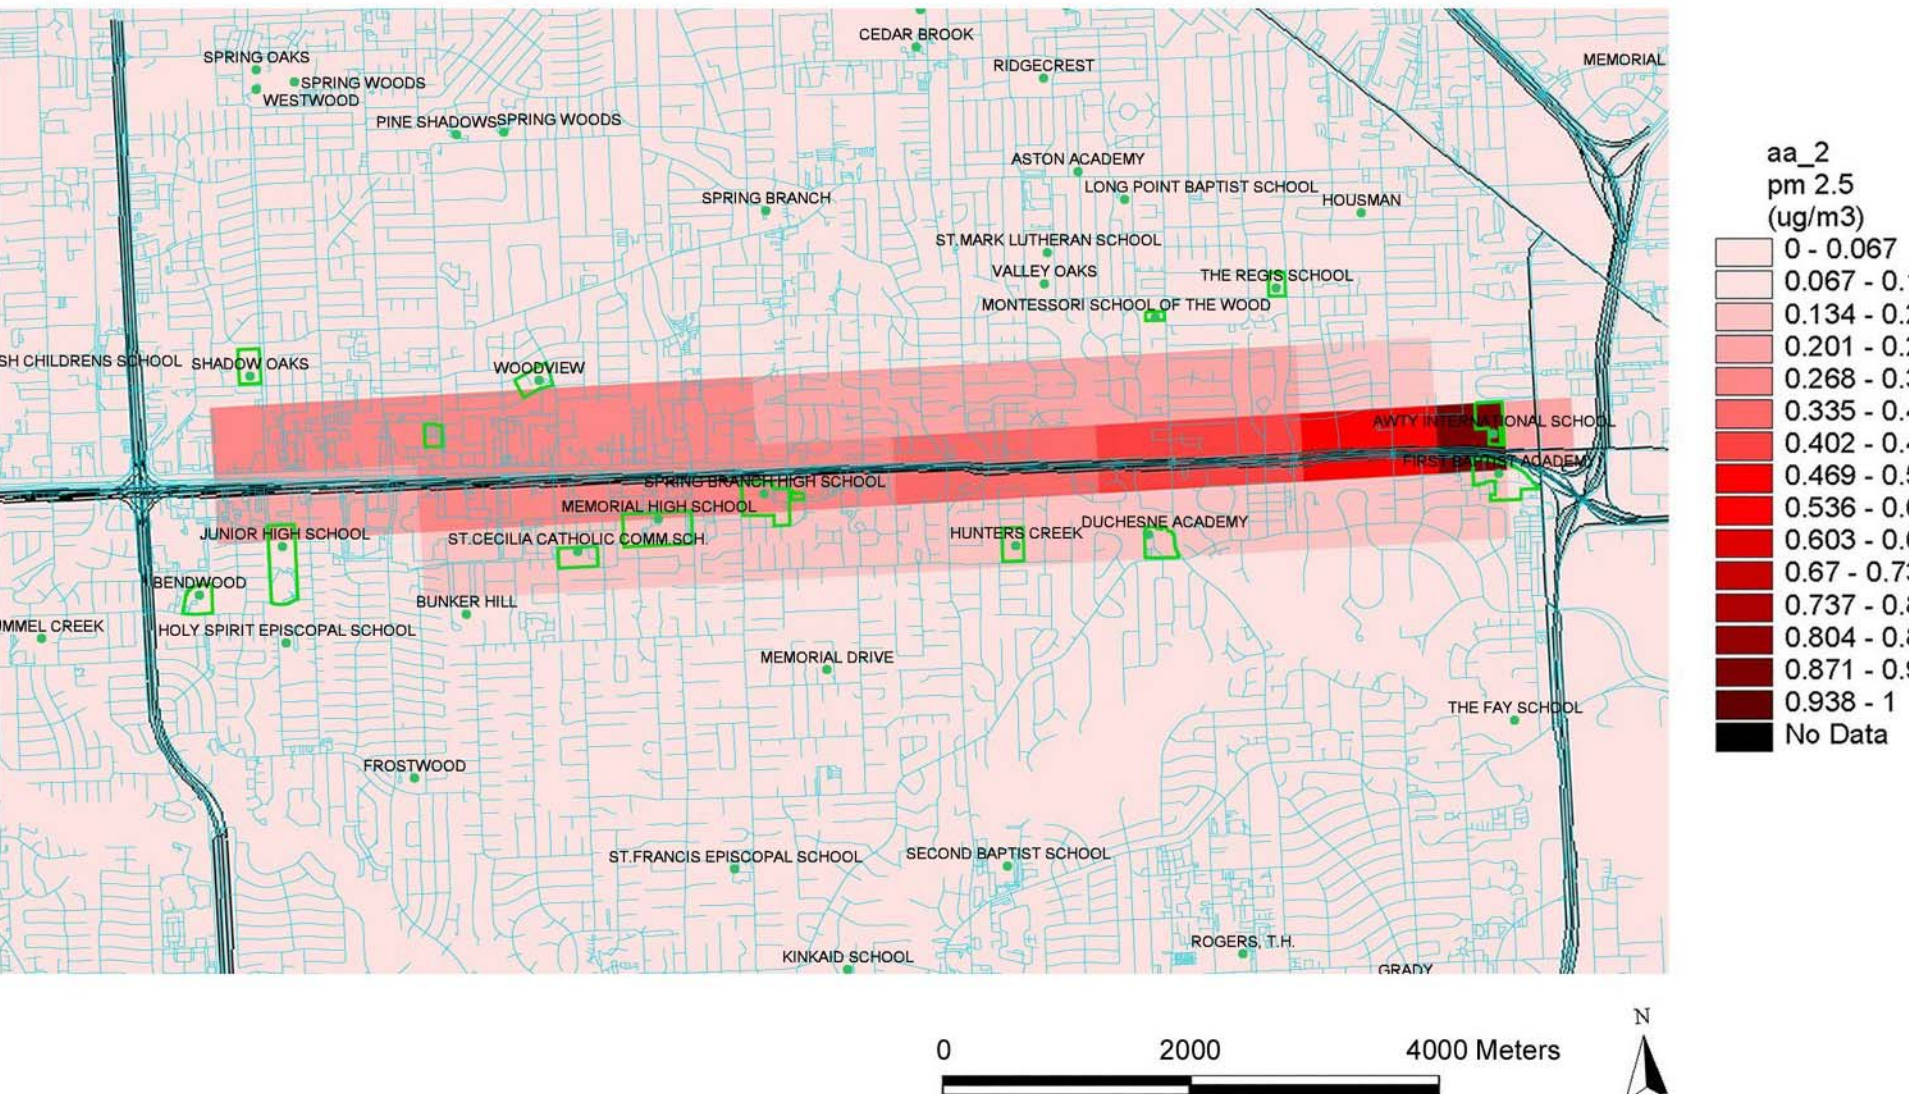

- How MfCA can benefit
- How community can benefit
- Disadvantage to community

Annual Average Fine Particle Pollution Predicted for the Expanded Katy Freeway in the year 2020

How MfCA can benefit

- Report quantitative information
- Identify “hot spots”
- Hold public officials accountable

Benzene

Benzene

Benzene

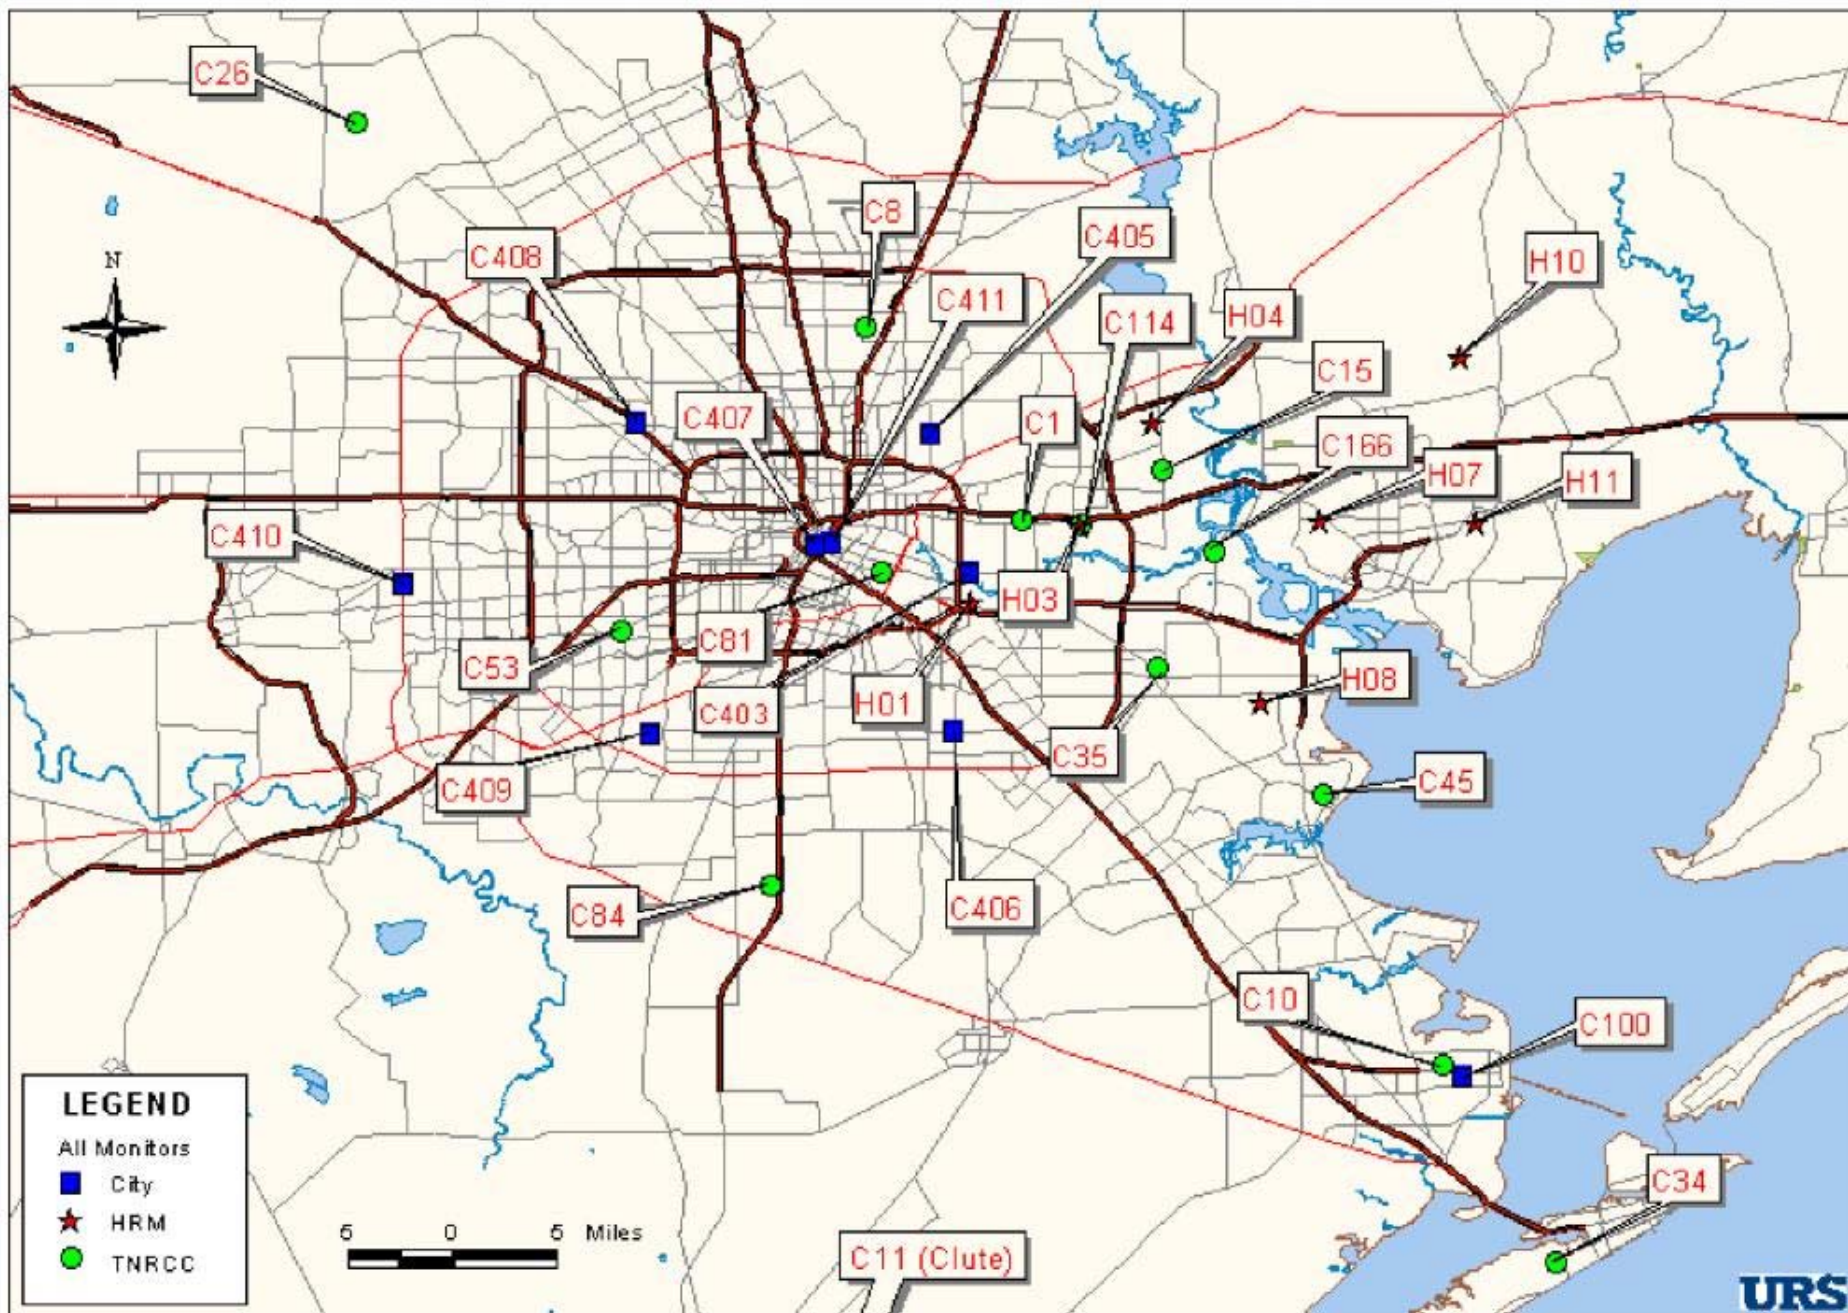

Cancer Cluster

Cancer Cluster

Cancer Cluster

Cancer Cluster

How community can benefit

- Answers to questions
- Data for claims
- Info to make decisions

Disadvantage to community

- Different expectations
- Mistrust

Public Health Tracking Needs

- Better environmental monitoring
- Improved reporting of disease
- Increased biomonitoring

